

2nd International Scientific Conference

GIFTED CHILDREN: Challenges and Possibilities

Selected Papers

The issue has been funded by the Ministry of Education and Science of Republic of Lithuania

CONTENT

Eltis Abel, Mati Abel. The Impact of the International Competitions to the Advanced Mathematical Education – the Case of Estonia	5
Dace Bonka, Agnese Šuste. Exciting Numbers in Promotion of Mathematical Giftedness	9
Maksim Ivanov. Some New Projects for Developing 5 th – 8 th Grade Students in Estonia	12
Liena Ivanova, Malgožata Raščevska. Conceptions About Wise Persons in Latvia	16
Rima Kasubaite Binder. A Retrospective of a Successful Differentiated Talent Development Program for the Gifted	20
Solveiga Miežitis. Will Mark grow up to be a Bill Gates or a grade 3 drop-out? Identifying Creative Adolescents: Challenges for Parents, Teachers and Counselors	27
Jurga Misiūnienė. Theoretical Assumptions of the Internal and External Factors' Influence on Gifts Transformation into Talent among Lithuanian Adolescents	32
Līga Ramāna, Maruta Avotiņa. Some Aspects of Problem Creation for Gifted Students	37
Detlef H. Rost, Jörn R. Sparfeldt. Underachievement from a Psychological and Educational Point of View	41