

CONTENT

1. Introduction	5
1.1 Fidelity to the Presence as a Fundamental Landmark of Lithuanian Philosophy	7
1.2 The Level of Problem Exploration	10
1.3 Methodological Problems of Investigating Contemporary Lithuanian Philosophy	18
2. Main Features of Analytic Philosophy in Lithuania	19
2.1 Rolandas Pavilionis: Analysis of Sense and Human World ..	20
2.2 Algirdas Degutis: Analysis of Language and Transcendental Arguments	27
2.3 Marius Povilas Šaulauskas: from Linguistic towards Social Turn	35
2.4 Zenonas Norkus: from Philosophy towards Sociology	42
3. The Main Features of Phenomenological Philosophy in Lithuania	52
3.1 Arvydas Šliogeris: Metaphysics of the Thing	53
3.2 Tomas Sodeika: towards Authentic Human Experience	60
3.3 Arūnas Sverdiolas: Being of Cultural Thing	67
3.4 Rita Šerpytytė: Mapping Western Nihilism	74
3.5 Gintautas Mažeikis, Dalius Jonkus: Philosophical Anthropology in Contemporary Lithuania	78
4. The Main Features of Postmodern Philosophy in Lithuania	87
4.1 Jūrate Baranova: from Kant to Derrida	87

4.2 Vytautas Rubavičius: Postmodernism and Capitalism	99
4.3 Audronė Žukauskaitė: Postmodernism and Feminism	106
4.4 Nerijus Milerius: Visuality and Postmodernism	113
5. Topocracy as a Concept Describing Lithuanian Way of Being	121
6. Conclusions.	123
Literature	125