

WORKING WITH
ASPECTS OF LANGUAGE

MANSOOR ALYESHMERNI

PAUL TAUBR

Contents

1 Born to Speak 1

- READING: The Limitations of Imitation: The Problem of Language Acquisition
Philip B. Gough 1
- EXERCISE 1: Language, Instinctive or Acquired? 6
- READING: The Four Criteria Eric Lenneberg 6
- EXERCISE 2: The Nature of Language Acquisition 9
- READING: The Nature of Language Acquisition Edward Sapir 9
- EXERCISE 3: Stages of Language Acquisition 11

2 Some Traits of Language 13

- EXERCISE 1: Language Is Patterned Behavior 13
A Pattern of English Word Order, Patterns of Negation and Interrogation,
Rules of Pronunciation in English
- EXERCISE 2: Language Is Systematic 17
- EXERCISE 3: Language Is Largely Arbitrary 18

3 The Phonetic Elements 21

- EXERCISE 1: Articulation of Sounds 21
- EXERCISE 2: A Classification of English Sounds 23
The Phonetic Chart, Manner of Articulation, Position of Articulation, Articulatory Description of Sounds, Sound Relations, Phonetics and Spelling, Transcription for Reading Practice, Transcription
- EXERCISE 3: Distinctive Features 31
Distinctive Features, Distinctive Features in Pairs
- EXERCISE 4: Intonation 33

4 Structure in Language: The Units of Sound 35

EXERCISE 1: The Allophone 35

Some Allophones of /k/ in English

EXERCISE 2: The Phoneme 38

Determining Vowel Phonemes

EXERCISE 3: Segmental Phonemes of English 40

Minimal Pairs

EXERCISE 4: Particle, Wave, and Field in Phonology 41

The Syllable—A Wave Phenomenon, The CVC Pattern in English, Initial Consonant Clusters—Two Consonants, Initial Consonant Clusters—Three Consonants, Summary of Initial Consonants and Consonant Clusters, “Fuzzy Borders” Between Syllables

5 Structure in Language: The Higher Levels 47

EXERCISE 1: Morphemes 47

EXERCISE 2: Source Morphemes and System Morphemes 48

EXERCISE 3: Allomorphs 49

EXERCISE 4: Morpheme Identification 50

Modern Hebrew, Classical Arabic

EXERCISE 5: Word Classes 51

Clues to Word Classes, Nouns, Verbs, Semantic Compatibility

EXERCISE 6: Syntax 55

Syntactic Differences, Syntactic Ambiguities, Tagmemes and Syntagmemes, Phrasing, Embedding

6 The Evolution of Language: Courses, Forces, Sounds, and Spellings 59

EXERCISE 1: Indo-European Languages 59

EXERCISE 2: The Comparative Method 60

EXERCISE 3: Cumulative Change 62

READING: The Daily Life of Elizabethan England Claude Hollyband 62

EXERCISE 4: Borrowing 64

Borrowing I—General, Borrowing II—Words of French Origin in English, Borrowing III—Words of Latin Origin in English

EXERCISE 5: Inner Forces of Change 69

The Changes in Sounds

EXERCISE 6: Spelling Pronunciation 70

7 The Evolution of Language: Meanings, Interpretations, and Adjustments 71

EXERCISE 1: Meaning Brings About Changes in Form 71

Blends, Malapropisms

EXERCISE 2: Changes Result from Differences in Point of View 73

Folk Etymology, Fusion, Connotation, Expansion and Restriction, Bifurcation, Metaphor, Euphemism, Hyperbole, Conflict of Homonyms, Conflict of Synonyms, Analogy and Analysis

EXERCISE 3: Language Adjusts 81

Compensatory Change, Compensatory Change in Spelling

8 The Evolution of Language: Views and Measurements 85

READING: A Brief History of the English Language Margaret Schlauch 85

EXERCISE 1: Periods of English 106

EXERCISE 2: Times of Borrowing 108

EXERCISE 3: Etymological Composition of English 108

9 Dialect 111

EXERCISE 1: Regional Dialects 111

EXERCISE 2: Social Dialects 114

A Correct Dialect? An Irregular Dialect?

READING: The Language of the Ghetto Child Joan C. Baratz 116

A Dialect of Washington, D. C.

READING: Chicago: The Macrocosm Raven I. McDavid, Jr. 122

READING: Is There a Negro Speech Pattern? William Labov 126

READING: Society Dialects Stephen Birmingham 129

EXERCISE 3: Dialects for Various Occasions 130

10 Writing 133

EXERCISE 1: Pictographs 133

EXERCISE 2: Word Symbols 133

EXERCISE 3: Rebus Writing 135

EXERCISE 4: A Combination of Rebus and Word-Symbol Writing 135

EXERCISE 5: The Cherokee Syllabary 136

- EXERCISE 6: The Hebrew Writing System 137
EXERCISE 7: English Sounds and Spellings 139
The Consistency of English Spelling, English Spelling Reform

11 The Evolving Approaches to Language 143

- EXERCISE 1: Identification of Schools of Grammar 143
EXERCISE 2: Normative Grammar—Nineteenth Century 146
EXERCISE 3: Normative Grammar—Twentieth Century 147
EXERCISE 4: Reed-Kellogg Diagrams 148
EXERCISE 5: Analysis by Immediate Constituents 157
EXERCISE 6: Transformational-Generative Grammar (TGG) 167
Constituents of a Sentence, The Noun Phrase, More about the Constituents of a Sentence, The Adjective, More about the NP, More about the Verb Phrase, The Function of Transformations

12 Meaning 181

- EXERCISE 1: Semantic Distinctive Features 181
EXERCISE 2: Antonyms 183
EXERCISE 3: Synonyms 186
EXERCISE 4: Selection Information 188

13 Mind in the Grip of Language 191

- EXERCISE 1: More Meanings of Musical Instruments 191
EXERCISE 2: Political and Social Terms 199
EXERCISE 3: Entertainment Terms 205
EXERCISE 4: Favorable and Unfavorable Naming 212

14 Some Practical Matters 215

- EXERCISE 1: The Third New International Dictionary: On Pronunciation 215
EXERCISE 2: The Third New International Dictionary: On Word Usage 218
EXERCISE 3: The Third New International Dictionary: On Inflections 219
EXERCISE 4: The Desk Dictionary 220
EXERCISE 5: Readings in Doctrines of Usage 226
Seventeenth- and Eighteenth-Century England, Nineteenth-Century America