

HOW TO OBSERVE FACE-TO-FACE COMMUNICATION: A SOCIOLOGICAL INTRODUCTION

Matthew Speier

Author's Foreword	vii
Preface	xi
CHAPTER ONE	1
The Natural History Approach to the Sociology of Everyday Life
CHAPTER TWO	12
Necessary Suppositions for the Naturalistic Study of Social Organization
CHAPTER THREE	30
Some Formal Elements of Interactional Events: An Overview
CHAPTER FOUR	58
The Element of Talk
CHAPTER FIVE	72
Elements of Conversational Structure, I: The Interchange
CHAPTER SIX	85
Elements of Conversational Structure, II: The Natural History of Conversational Development
CHAPTER SEVEN	113
What Is a Social Activity: Some Descriptive Parameters
CHAPTER EIGHT	135
Substantive Applications
Childhood Socialization
Work and Occupations
Deviance
Social Stratification

INDEXES

197

Author

Concept

Subject