

ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT FOR BUSINESS
■ DECISIONS ■

GEOFFREY G. MEREDITH

CONTENTS

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv

MODULE I

ACCOUNTING FOR MANAGEMENT'S FINANCIAL INFORMATION NEEDS

TOPIC I	FINANCIAL INFORMATION FOR MANAGERIAL DECISION MAKING	3
1.1	Learning objectives	3
1.2	Organisations and management	3
1.3	The financial and non-financial information needs of managers	6
1.4	Accounting as a provider of financial information	10
1.5	The flow of accounting information: data collection and classification	13
1.6	The flow of accounting information: data analysis and storage	15
1.7	The flow of accounting information: reports for management	16
1.8	The accounting equation	25
1.9	Keypoint summary	30
	Review exercises	30

	Discussion questions	33
	Technical appendixes	34
1A.1	Sole proprietorships, partnerships and companies: advantages and disadvantages	34
1A.2	The accounting profession in Australia	36
1A.3	Accounting assumptions and standards	37
TOPIC 2	FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS: DATA COLLECTION AND STORAGE	39
2.1	Learning objectives	39
2.2	The basic principles of an FMIS	39
2.3	The source of financial information in an FMIS	47
2.4	Collating data in journals	50
2.5	Ledgers for storing financial information	52
2.6	Checking accuracy: the trial balance	54
2.7	Final adjustments and reports	55
2.8	A manual versus a computer-based FMIS	69
2.9	An FMIS and marketing, production and administration management	74
2.10	Keypoint summary	77
	Review exercises	78
	Discussion questions	81
	Technical appendixes	83
2A.1	Accounting measurement rules	83
2A.2	Credit card sales, lay-by sales and outstanding debtors	87
2A.3	Bank reconciliations and stock records	89
2A.4	Staff records	92
TOPIC 3	FINANCIAL REPORTS FOR MANAGEMENT	95
3.1	Learning objectives	95
3.2	Alternative FMIS reports	95
3.3	The financial performance statement	98

3.4	The financial position statement	102
3.5	The cash-flow statement	109
3.6	The funds statement	111
3.7	Reporting for sole proprietors, partners and company shareholders	113
3.8	Supplementary reports	117
3.9	Keypoint summary	118
	Review exercises	119
	Discussion questions	124
	Technical appendixes	126
3A.1	Depreciation of assets	126
3A.2	Reporting leased assets	128
3A.3	Franchise operations and reporting	129

TOPIC 4	ACCOUNTING ADJUSTMENTS AND REPORTING FOR SOLE PROPRIETORS, PARTNERS AND CORPORATIONS	132
4.1	Learning objectives	132
4.2	The need for accounting adjustments	132
4.3	Adjustments for revenue, expenses, inventory and assets	134
4.4	The impact of adjustments on reports	139
4.5	Reporting for sole proprietors	143
4.6	Reporting for partners	144
4.7	Reporting for company managers, directors and shareholders	146
4.8	Keypoint summary	151
	Review exercises	153
	Discussion questions	155
	Technical appendixes	157
4A.1	Reporting standards	157
4A.2	Use of service companies by sole proprietors and partnerships	158
4A.3	Reporting subsidiary company operations	160
	Further reading: Module I	161

MODULE II

MANAGEMENT'S USE OF FINANCIAL INFORMATION

TOPIC 5	FINANCIAL STATEMENT ANALYSIS	165
5.1	Learning objectives	165
5.2	Why analyse financial statements?	165
5.3	Financial performance statement analysis	166
5.4	Financial position statement analysis	170
5.5	Measures of efficiency and profitability	172
5.6	Measures of financial stability	178
5.7	Analysis of financial performance trends	180
5.8	Interindustry comparisons	181
5.9	Analysing company performance from published reports	182
5.10	From financial statement analysis to enterprise valuation	183
5.11	Using charts and graphs to report analyses	186
5.12	Keypoint summary	188
	Review exercises	189
	Discussion questions	194
	Technical appendixes	195
5A.1	The Dupont ratio system	195
5A.2	An example: ratios for a service organisation	196
5A.3	Using stock exchange and Australian Bureau of Statistics data	197
TOPIC 6	COST BEHAVIOUR AND PROFIT-VOLUME DECISIONS	205
6.1	Learning objectives	205
6.2	Cost behaviour	205
6.3	Cost-volume and profit-volume relationships	211
6.4	Break-even analysis and margin of safety	215
6.5	Contribution margin and profit-volume concepts	216
6.6	Cost and profit-volume charts	218
6.7	Profit-volume analysis and profit planning	221
6.8	Profit-volume analysis and profit-cost control	225

6.9	Profit-volume analysis and pricing decisions	227
6.10	Keypoint summary	229
	Review exercises	230
	Discussion questions	234
	Technical appendixes	235
6A.1	Analysing costs into fixed and variable components	235
6A.2	Assumptions and limitations of profit-volume analysis	238
6A.3	Profit-volume formulas	239
6A.4	Special applications of profit-volume analysis	243
TOPIC 7	BUDGETS AND PERFORMANCE REPORTS	245
7.1	Learning objectives	245
7.2	The budget process and its objectives	245
7.3	Budgets as performance measurement tools	248
7.4	The master budget and its components	249
7.5	Data collection: forecasting techniques	255
7.6	Budget and actual performance reports by responsibility centres	257
7.7	Management control: interpretation of reports and follow-up	259
7.8	Graphs and charts depicting trends	261
7.9	Flexible budgets and their applications	262
7.10	Administration of the budget process	265
7.11	Keypoint summary	265
	Review exercises	266
	Discussion questions	273
	Technical appendixes	274
7A.1	Forecasting techniques	274
7A.2	Budgets for specific industry sectors	276
7A.3	Analysis of budget variances	278
7A.4	Flexible budgets: the interpretation of results	279
TOPIC 8	COST ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS AND MANAGEMENT CONTROL	281
8.1	Learning objectives	281
8.2	Financial versus cost accounting systems	281

8.3	Objectives of cost accounting	283
8.4	Costs and cost systems	283
8.5	Cost systems based on operations	287
8.6	Standard cost concepts and systems	290
8.7	Cost variances: calculation, interpretation and treatment	292
8.8	Activity-based accounting	296
8.9	A review of management controls through an FMIS	297
8.10	Keypoint summary	297
	Review exercises	298
	Discussion questions	302
	Technical appendixes	304
8A.1	Cost and management accounting in the public sector	304
8A.2	Cost classifications in a cost accounting system	305
8A.3	Problems of joint costs and by-products	307
8A.4	More detail on overhead capacity variances	309
	Further reading: Module II	312

MODULE III

FINANCE AND INVESTMENT IN BUSINESS

TOPIC 9	INVESTMENT ALTERNATIVES AND PROJECT EVALUATION	315
9.1	Learning objectives	315
9.2	Investment opportunities and business growth	315
9.3	Project evaluation and business objectives	317
9.4	Cash payback analysis	321
9.5	Accounting rates of return	322
9.6	Internal rate of return (IRR)	323
9.7	Present value (PV) methods	329
9.8	Variations in IRR and PV methods: equivalent rate of return and annual equivalent cost	331
9.9	From projects to capital budgets and control	334
9.10	Keypoint summary	336

	Review exercises	337
	Discussion questions	340
	Technical appendixes	342
9A.1	Sensitivity analysis in investment decisions	342
9A.2	Links between payback and IRR estimates	343
9A.3	The impact of capital rationing	344
TOPIC 10	FINANCE: SOURCES AND COSTS	347
10.1	Learning objectives	347
10.2	Financial objectives and financial structures	347
10.3	Short-term debt funds	349
10.4	Long-term debt funds	350
10.5	Owners' funds	353
10.6	Debt versus equity: financial leverage	361
10.7	The cost of funds	365
10.8	Financial markets	366
10.9	Keypoint summary	367
	Review exercises	368
	Discussion questions	369
	Technical appendixes	370
10A.1	Dividend policy	370
10A.2	The impact of tax on financial decisions	371
TOPIC 11	MANAGEMENT OF WORKING CAPITAL	374
11.1	Learning objectives	374
11.2	Working capital concepts	374
11.3	Managing cash and marketable securities	378
11.4	Managing debtors	380
11.5	Inventory management	382
11.6	Trade creditors	384
11.7	Overdraft and short-term loans	386
11.8	Measuring and evaluating working capital performance	387
11.9	Keypoint summary	391
	Review exercises	392

	Discussion questions	395
	Technical appendixes	397
11A.1	Pricing products and services	397
11A.2	Debtor control systems and analysis	399
11A.3	Inventory control systems and analysis	400
TOPIC 12	STRATEGIC DECISIONS INVOLVING FINANCE	404
12.1	Learning objectives	404
12.2	Determining the relevant costs for special decisions	404
12.3	Applications of cost-benefit analyses	406
12.4	Lease versus buy decisions	412
12.5	The financial lifecycle of the organisation	414
12.6	Investment in shares	415
12.7	Other investment opportunities	418
12.8	Keypoint summary	419
	Review exercises	420
	Discussion questions	422
	Technical appendixes	424
12A.1	Ethics and accounting for management	424
12A.2	Directors' responsibilities	425
12A.3	The government as a source of funds	426
	Further reading: Module III	427
	Glossary	428
	Answers	439
	Index	459