

Börje Stålhammar

Musical Identities and Music Education

Contents

Introduction	7
Chapter 1 Values of Music	19
Two cases: English and Swedish.....	21
Own music and school music.....	57
Chapter 2 Musical Roles	67
Me and music – an individual-related dimension	68
Us and music – a socially related dimension.....	87
Music in a pragmatic perspective	100
Chapter 3 Spaces of Music	109
Spatio-temporal worlds.....	110
Spaces	113
Individual space	115
Internal space.....	124
Imaginary space	132
Particular and universal fields of force	143
Chapter 4 Music and Human Beings	153
Art and environment.....	157
Art as activity and convention.....	160
Musical experience.....	165
Chapter 5 Collaboration in Music Teaching.....	171
Working methods, participation and co-creation	177
The students' and teachers' experience-potential – a discussion	181

Chapter 6	Experience and Music Teaching.....	189
	Fitting into the world of the school	190
	Sifting of experience	192
	Evaluation of experience	194
	Experience, a longitudinal and transversal phenomenon	196
	Experience and aesthetics	199
	The definition of art	203
Chapter 7	Music is More – a Broader Concept of Music	209
	Mousiké.....	210
	Music.....	212
	Music teaching.....	214
	Image – music – body.....	218
	Music teaching and modernity	221
	Cultural consonance and cultural dissonance.....	226
	Implications	229
	Notes	233