Narrative Research

Use of narrative approaches	9
Key books and references	10
Definition and background	54
Types of narrative studies	54
Procedures in conducting narrative research	55
Challenges in using narrative research	57
Focus of narrative research	94
Example of a narrative study, Appendix B	252
Research problem	103
Purpose statement	106
Research questions	110
Individual or site to be studied	119
Access and rapport issues	123
Sampling strategy	126
Forms of data	131
Ethical issues	141
Data analysis	155
Writing a narrative study	183
Standards of evaluation	213
Case study “turned” into a narrative study	225

Phenomenology

Use of psychological approach	9
Key books and references	10
Definition and background	57

Types of phenomenology	59
Procedures in conducting phenomenology	60
Challenges in using phenomenology	62
Focus of phenomenology	94
Example of a phenomenological study, Appendix C	265
Research problem	103
Purpose statement	106
Research questions	110
Participants in a phenomenological study	119
Access issues	125
Sampling strategy	128
Forms of data	131
Ethical issues	141
Data analysis	159
Writing a phenomenological study	187
Standards of evaluation	215
Case study “turned” into a phenomenology	225

Grounded Theory

Use of sociological approach	9
Key books and references	10
Definition and background	62
Types of grounded theory studies	64
Procedures in conducting grounded theory research	66
Challenges in using grounded theory research	67
Focus of grounded theory research	94
Example of a grounded theory study of, Appendix D	285
Research problem	103
Purpose statement	106
Research questions	111
Participants in a grounded theory study	122
Access issues	125
Sampling strategy	128
Forms of data	131
Ethical issues	141
Data analysis	160
Writing a grounded theory study	189
Standards of evaluation	216
Case study “turned” into a grounded theory study	227

Ethnography

Use of anthropological, sociological, and interpretive approaches	9
Key books and references	10
Definition and background	68
Types of ethnographies	69
Procedures in conducting ethnography	70
Challenges in using ethnography	72
Focus of ethnography	94
Example of an ethnography, Appendix E	309
Research problem	103
Purpose statement	107
Research questions	112
Site to be studied	122
Access and rapport issues	125
Sampling strategy	128
Forms of data	131
Ethical issues	141
Data analysis	161
Writing an ethnography	192
Standards of evaluation	217
Case study “turned” into ethnography	228

Case Study

Use of evaluation approach	9
Key books and references	10
Definition and background	73
Types of case studies	74
Procedures for conducting a case study	74
Challenges in using a case study	75
Focus of a case study	94
Example of a case study, Appendix F	337
Research problem	103
Purpose statement	107
Research questions	112
Site to be studied	122
Access and rapport issues	125
Sampling strategy	129
Forms of data	132

xiv Qualitative Inquiry and Research Design

Ethical issues	141
Data analysis	163
Writing a case study	195
Standards of evaluation	218
A case study revisited before “turning”	225
