

The background of the cover is a vibrant, multi-colored visualization of neural activity and memory. It features a central human face with glowing eyes, overlaid with a network of lines and nodes. Various colored spheres (blue, green, yellow, red) are scattered throughout, connected by thin lines. The overall aesthetic is ethereal and scientific, suggesting the intricate processes of the brain.

LEARNING & MEMORY

The Brain in Action

MARILEE SPRENGER

Learning and Memory: The Brain in Action

	Preface and Acknowledgments . . . . .	v
1	Losing Your Mind: The Function of Brain Cells . . . . .	1
2	Chicken Soup for the Brain: The Effects of Brain Chemicals . . . . .	15
3	Pieces and Parts: The Anatomy of the Brain . . . . .	30
4	Strolling Down Memory Lanes: Memory and Storage Systems . . . . .	45
5	Where Is Wally? Locating Memories in the Brain • • • •	57
6	The Path Most Traveled: Semantic Memory Instructional Strategies . . . . .	64
7	The Lanes Less Traveled: Instructional Strategies for Episodic, Procedural, Automatic, and Emotional Memory . . . . .	72
8	Producing the Evidence: Assessment That Mirrors Instructional Strategies . . . . .	81
9	Frequently Asked Questions . . . . .	93
	Glossary . . . . .	103
	Bibliography . . . . .	106
	Index . . . . .	108
	About the Author . . . . .	114