

Contents

Preface	• vii
Organization of the Text	• vii
Revisions to the Seventh Edition	• ix
Ancillaries	• x
Using the Text	• x
About the Authors	• xii
Acknowledgments	• xiii

Orientation to Student Teaching

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION TO STUDENT TEACHING PRACTICUM . . . 2

Training Guidelines	3	Initial Feelings	4	The Mechanics of Student Teaching	4	Key Participants in Student Teacher Development	4	Before Placements	5	Orientation	7	Establishing Professional Relationships	11	Becoming a Professional	11	Student Teaching Goals	14	Preparing for Your First Day	16	Becoming Part of the Classroom Staff	17	The Early Days	20	Becoming a Team Member	21	Goals of the Team and Program	22	Summary	27	Helpful Websites	27	Suggested Activities	28	Review	29	References	29
---------------------	---	------------------	---	-----------------------------------	---	---	---	-------------------	---	-------------	---	---	----	-------------------------	----	------------------------	----	------------------------------	----	--------------------------------------	----	----------------	----	------------------------	----	-------------------------------	----	---------	----	------------------	----	----------------------	----	--------	----	------------	----

CHAPTER 2 A STUDENT TEACHER'S VALUES AND DEVELOPING TEACHING STYLE . . . . . 31

Knowing Yourself and Your Values	32	The Acquisition of Values	33	Your Values	36	Personal Values and Activities	36	Dispositions	38	Professional Ethics	38	Teaching Style	41	Other Teaching Styles	46	Summary	47	Helpful Websites	48	Suggested Activities	48	Review	49	References	49
----------------------------------	----	---------------------------	----	-------------	----	--------------------------------	----	--------------	----	---------------------	----	----------------	----	-----------------------	----	---------	----	------------------	----	----------------------	----	--------	----	------------	----

CHAPTER 3	BEING OBSERVED: DISCOVERING YOUR COMPETENCIES . . . . .	51
	Goals of Assessment, Evaluation, and Discussion	52
	Observations	54
	Clinical Supervision	56
	Reliability	60
	Peer Observations	66
	Competency-Based Training	67
	The Whole Teacher	70
	Reflective Behaviors	71
	The Last Step	74
	Summary	75
	Helpful Websites	75
	Suggested Activities	75
	Review	76
	References	76

2

Programming

CHAPTER 4	INSTRUCTIONAL PLANNING . . . . .	78
	Looking at Accepted Curriculum Standards and Practices	79
	Identifying Child Interests and Needs	80
	Constructivism and Developmentally Appropriate Practice	83
	A Curriculum Continuum	84
	Activity Resources	86
	Curriculum	86
	Goal Statements	88
	How Language Instruction Fits into All Activity Planning	90
	Lesson Plan Goals and Objectives	94
	Developmental Skills	96
	Other Activity Plan Areas	99
	Working with Groups	101
	Thematic Teaching	105
	Summary	110
	Helpful Websites	111
	Suggested Activities	111
	Review	111
	References	112

3

Working with Children

CHAPTER 5	CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT: BEYOND DISCIPLINE . . . . .	114
	Classroom Management	115
	The Guidance or Disciplinary Function in Classroom Management	119
	Child Empowerment	121
	Classroom Management or Disciplinary Techniques	126
	Additional Management and Discipline Strategies	134
	Guidance Techniques Used in Elementary Schools	141
	Summary	142
	Helpful Websites	143
	Suggested Activities	144
	Review	144
	References	144
CHAPTER 6	UNDERSTANDING BEHAVIOR . . . . .	146
	Erikson's Theory of Psychosocial Development	147
	Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs	157
	Cultural Differences	160
	How Do Children Learn?	160
	Applying Theories to Understand Behavior	162
	Observation Forms	162
	The Roles of a Student Teacher	169
	Summary	169
	Helpful Websites	170
	Suggested Activities	170
	Review	173
	References	174
CHAPTER 7	WORKING WITH CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS . . . . .	175
	Laws Relating to the Education of Young Children with Special Needs	176
	Children with Special Needs	179
	Working with Children with Special

Needs 190 Summary 193 Helpful Websites 194 Suggested Activities 195
Review 195 References 196

4

Communication

CHAPTER 8 COMMON PROBLEMS OF STUDENT TEACHERS ..... 198

Kinds of Problems 199 The Role of Communication and Conflict Resolution 208 Listening: The Ability to Receive 213 A Problem-Solving Process 216 Summary 219 Helpful Websites 220 Suggested Activities 220 Review 221 References 221

5

Interactions

CHAPTER 9 STUDENT TEACHERS AND FAMILIES ..... 224

Discovering a Center's Family Relations Philosophy 225 Interacting with Families 227 The Importance of Home-Teacher Partnerships 228 Planning the Home Visit 235 Other School-Home Interactions 235 Precautions 240 Summary 242 Helpful Websites 242 Suggested Activities 243 Review 243 References 244

6

Professional Concerns

CHAPTER 10 QUALITY PROGRAMS IN EARLY CHILDHOOD SETTINGS ..... 246

Meeting Children's Needs 248 Standards of Quality Programs 251 Types of Quality Programs 254 Who Decides the Quality of a Program? 255 Accreditation and its Relationship to Quality 261 The Comer Project for Change in Education 263 Mentoring Programs 264 Summary 266 Helpful Websites 266 Suggested Activities 267 Review 267 References 268

CHAPTER 11 PROFESSIONAL COMMITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT ..... 270

Definitions 271 Professional Concerns 272 Professional Behavior and Commitment 273 Professional Growth and Development 277 Professional Growth Opportunities 280 Demonstration-Teaching and Mentoring 283 Leadership 285 Employment 285 Early Childhood Employment 290 Summary 298 Helpful Websites 298 Suggested Reading 299 Suggested Activities 299 Review 299 References 299

7

Infant/Toddler Placements

CHAPTER 12	STUDENT TEACHING WITH INFANTS AND TODDLERS.....	302
	Standards 303 Characteristics of a Quality Infant/Toddler Center 303
	Student Teaching with Infants and Toddlers 309 Approaching and Working with Very Young Children 309 General Rules and Regulations 312
	Caregiving as a Teaching Activity 320 A Curriculum for Infants and Toddlers 322 Activities in the Infant/ Toddler Center 324 Child's Physical Environment 327 Awareness of Your Own Needs as a Caregiver 329
	Safety 331 Summary 332 Helpful Websites 332
	Suggested Activities 332 Review 332 References 333
	Appendix • 335
	Glossary • 359
	Index • 363	