

Seventh Edition

BUSINESS ETHICS

RICHARD T. DEGEORGE

CONTENTS

Preface xi

Introduction

|                  |                                       |           |
|------------------|---------------------------------------|-----------|
| Chapter 1 | Ethics and Business                   | 1  |
|                  | Horatio Alger and Stock Options       | 1         |
|                  | The Myth of Amoral Business           | 3         |
|                  | The Relation of Business and Morality | 5         |
|                  | Business Ethics and Ethics            | 9         |
|                  | The Case of the Collapsed Mine        | 18        |
|                  | Study Questions                | 20 |

Moral Reasoning in Business

|                  |  |           |
|------------------|--|-----------|
| Chapter 2 | Conventional Morality and Ethical Relativism | 21        |
|                  | Purchasing Abroad: A Case Study              | 21        |
|                  | The Levels of Moral Development              | 22        |
|                  | Subjective and Objective Morality            | 24        |
|                  | Descriptive Relativism                       | 26        |
|                  | Normative Ethical Relativism                 | 27        |
|                  | Moral Absolutism                             | 31        |
|                  | Moral Pluralism                              | 32        |
|                  | Pluralism and American Business              | 33        |
|                  | Pluralism and International Business         | 33        |
|                  | Pluralism, Business, and the Law             | 35        |
|                  | Business and Religious Ethics                | 36        |
|                  | Approaches to Ethical Theory                 | 38        |
|                  | Study Questions                       | 41 |
| Chapter 3 | Utility and Utilitarianism                   | 43        |
|                  | An Airplane Manufacturing Case               | 43        |
|                  | Utilitarianism                               | 43        |
|                  | Act and Rule Utilitarianism                  | 47        |
|                  | Objections to Utilitarianism                 | 50        |
|                  | Utilitarianism and Justice                   | 52        |

Applying Utilitarianism 53

Utilitarianism and Bribery 56

Study Questions 60

Chapter 4 Moral Duty, Rights, and Justice 61

The Johnson Controls Case 61

Deontological Approaches to Ethics 62

Reason, Duty, and the Moral Law 63

Application of the Moral Law 67

Imperfect Duties, Special Obligations, and Moral Ideals 71

Rights and Justice 73

Study Questions 81

Chapter 5 Virtue Ethics and Moral Reasoning 82

The Case of Dora and Joe 82

Virtue 82

Applying Moral Reasoning 87

Study Questions 97

Chapter 6 Moral Responsibility: Individual and Corporate 98

The Love Canal Case 98

Moral Responsibility 99

Excusing Conditions 100

Liability and Accountability 104

Agent and Role Moral Responsibility 106

The Moral Status of Corporations and Formal Organizations 108

Study Questions 112

Moral Issues in Business

Chapter 7 Justice and Economic Systems 114

The Case of the Two Slaveholders 114

Moral Evaluation of Economic Systems 115

Moral Evaluation of Contemporary Systems 119

Economic Models and Games 120

A Capitalist Model 121

Capitalism and Government 125

A Socialist Model 128

Comparison of Models and Systems 130

Economic Systems and Justice 131

Study Questions 133

|                   |  |            |
|-------------------|--|------------|
| Chapter 8  | American Capitalism: Moral or Immoral?   | 134 |
|                   | The Case of Bill Gates and Warren Buffet   | 134        |
|                   | The American Economic System   | 136        |
|                   | Relation of the American Government to the American Economic System              | 138        |
|                   | The Marxist Critique   | 141        |
|                   | Non-Marxist Moral Critiques of American Capitalism                               | 146        |
|                   | The Moral Defense of the American Free-Enterprise System                         | 148        |
|                   | Nonsocialist Alternatives to Contemporary American Capitalism                    | 152        |
|                   | Philanthropy   | 156        |
|                   | Study Questions   | 157        |
| Chapter 9  | The International Business System, Globalization, and Multinational Corporations | 159        |
|                   | The WTO and Agriculture: A Case Study  | 159        |
|                   | Justice and the International Economic System                                    | 161        |
|                   | The Globalization of Business  | 164        |
|                   | Multinational Corporations and Ethics  | 167        |
|                   | Ethical Guidelines for Multinational Operations                                  | 173        |
|                   | Multinationals and Human Rights  | 175        |
|                   | International Codes  | 176        |
|                   | Cross-cultural Judgments, Negotiation, and International Justice                 | 180        |
|                   | Study Questions   | 183        |
| Chapter 10 | Corporations, Morality, and Corporate Social Responsibility                      | 185        |
|                   | The Case of Maiden Mills   | 185        |
|                   | Privately Owned, Small and Medium-sized Businesses                               | 187        |
|                   | Concept of the Corporation: Shareholder versus Stakeholder                       | 190        |
|                   | Moral Responsibility Within the Corporation                                      | 192        |
|                   | Corporate Social Responsibility  | 198        |
|                   | Corporate Codes  | 206        |
|                   | Corporate Culture and Moral Firms  | 208        |
|                   | Study Questions   | 209        |
| Chapter 11 | Corporate Governance, Disclosure, and Executive Compensation                     | 211        |
|                   | The Enron Case   | 211        |
|                   | Corporate Governance   | 213        |
|                   | Corporate Disclosure   | 218        |

Insider Trading 224
Executive Compensation 233
Study Questions 237

Chapter 12 Finance, Accounting, and Investing 239

The Case of Lehman Brothers 239
Mortgages, Risk, and Financial Institutions 241
Corporate Takeovers and Restructuring 249
Accounting 257
Ethical Investing 261
Study Questions 268

Chapter 13 Safety, Risk, and Environmental Protection 270

The McDonald's Polystyrene Case 270
Corporations, Products, and Services 271
Do No Harm 272
Safety and Acceptable Risk 273
Product Safety and Corporate Liability 276
Strict Liability 277
Production Safety 279
The Transfer of Dangerous Industries to Less Developed Countries 280
Environmental Harm 287
Pollution and Its Control 289
Global Warming and the Kyoto Protocol 294
Study Questions 296

Chapter 14 Whistle-Blowing 298

The Ford Pinto Case 298
Blowing the Whistle 299
Kinds of Whistle-Blowing 300
Whistle-Blowing as Morally Prohibited 303
Whistle-Blowing as Morally Permitted 306
Whistle-Blowing as Morally Required 310
Internal Whistle-Blowing 312
Precluding the Need for Whistle-Blowing 316
Study Questions 317

Chapter 15 Marketing, Truth, and Advertising 319

Case Study: Direct-to-Consumer Drug Advertising 319
The Nestlé Infant Milk Formula Case 321
Marketing 322

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Advertising                                       | 332 |
| Truth and Advertising                             | 334 |
| Manipulation and Coercion                         | 338 |
| Paternalism and Advertising                       | 340 |
| Prevention of Advertising                         | 342 |
| Allocation of Moral Responsibility in Advertising | 343 |
| Study Questions                            | 346 |

|                   |  |     |
|-------------------|--|-----|
| Chapter 16 | Workers' Rights: Employment, Discrimination, and Affirmative Action        | 348 |
|                   | The Case of the 2008 Presidential Election: The End of Affirmative Action? | 348 |
|                   | Employment-at-Will   | 349 |
|                   | Rights in Hiring, Promotion, and Firing                                    | 351 |
|                   | Discrimination, Affirmative Action, and Reverse Discrimination             | 354 |
|                   | Discrimination   | 356 |
|                   | Changing Social Structures   | 361 |
|                   | Equal Employment Opportunity   | 362 |
|                   | Affirmative Action   | 364 |
|                   | Reverse Discrimination   | 367 |
|                   | Balanced or Preferential Hiring  | 368 |
|                   | Study Questions   | 374 |

|                   |   |            |
|-------------------|---|------------|
| Chapter 17 | Workers' Rights and Duties Within a Firm            | 376 |
|                   | Case Study: Drug and Polygraph Testing at Company X | 376        |
|                   | The Rights of Employees Within a Firm               | 377        |
|                   | Employee Civil Rights and Equal Treatment           | 378        |
|                   | The Right to a Just Wage                            | 381        |
|                   | Privacy, Polygraphs, and Drugs                      | 388        |
|                   | Employee Duties                                     | 394        |
|                   | Worker Loyalty and Obedience                        | 395        |
|                   | The Right to Organize: Unions                       | 396        |
|                   | The Right to Strike                                 | 399        |
|                   | Study Questions                              | 403        |

|                   |  |            |
|-------------------|--|------------|
| Chapter 18 | Workers' Rights and International Business | 405 |
|                   | Nike: A Case Study                         | 405        |
|                   | Child Labor                                | 406        |
|                   | Sweatshops                                 | 409        |
|                   | Outsourcing and International Business     | 412        |
|                   | Migrant and Illegal Workers                | 413        |

Discrimination, Corrupt Governments, and Multinationals 417
The Right to Work 422
Study Questions 426

Chapter 19 The Information Age: Property and New Technologies 428
Two Intellectual Property Cases 428
Intellectual Property 431
Property: Information and Software 440
Patents and Pharmaceutical Drugs 451
Study Questions 453

Chapter 20 Information, Computers, the Internet, and Business 455
The Electronic Privacy at ABC Control Case 455
Business and Computers 456
Computer Crime 457
Computers and Corporate Responsibility 464
Computers and Privacy 466
The Changing Nature of Work 475
Study Questions 478

Chapter 21 Global Issues and International Obligations 480
The Case of Merck and Costa Rica 480
Global Issues 481
Famine, Malnutrition, and Moral Obligation 482
Cosmopolitanism and Poverty 488
Property and Allocation of the World's Resources 490
Global Common Goods 497
Oil and the Depletion of Natural Resources 498
Study Questions 505

Conclusion

Chapter 22 The New Moral Imperative for Business 507
The End of an Era: A Case Study 507
The Changing Business Mandate 509
Quality of Work Life 513
The Role of Government 517
Corporate Democracy and the New Entrepreneur 519
Building a Good Society 520
Study Questions 522