

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
About the Contributors	ix
Starting Points	xiii
1 The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child - Progress in the United Kingdom Gerison Lansdown	1
2 Inspection of Early Years in Schools Jean Ensing	11
3 Language, Culture and Difference: Challenging Inequality and Promoting Respect Iram Siraj-Blatchford	23
4 Choices in Learning Wendy Scott	34
5 Wide Eyes and Open Minds – Observing, Assessing and Respecting Children’s Early Achievements Cathy Nutbrown	44
6 Children with Special Educational Needs – a Collaborative and Inclusive Style of Working Elaine Herbert and Jenny Moir	56
7 Do We Train Our Early Childhood Educators to Respect Children? Audrey Curtis	69
8 Parents and Early Childhood Educators Working Together for Children’s Rights Kath Hirst	81
9 Their Right to Play Tricia David	90
10 Questions for Respectful Educators Cathy Nutbrown	99
Endword	109
References	110
Author Index	119
Index	122