

3RD EDITION

SPECIAL NEEDS &
EARLY YEARS

A Practitioner's Guide

KATE WALL

Contents

Foreword	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
About the Author	x
Glossary of Acronyms	xi
Definitions	xiv
1 Legislation and policy	1
Introduction • Development of nursery provision in the UK • The range of early years settings • The historical development of special needs provision and legislation in the UK • Summary • Timeline of key legislation, reports and guidance since 2000
2 Families of children with special needs	34
Introduction • Children and their families • Children with special needs and their families • Parental acceptance of special needs at or soon after birth • Parental acceptance of special needs at a later stage • Grandparents • Siblings • Implications for practice • The increase in numbers of children with special needs • Summary
3 Partnerships with parents	59
Introduction • Parental involvement or partnership? • Parental issues affecting partnership • Quality of partnership • Home-school liaison teachers and family centres • Characteristics of positive partnerships • Positive outcomes for practitioners • Positive outcomes for parents • Positive outcomes for children • Levels of partnership • Legislation and guidance • Parental involvement in observation, assessment and reviewing progress • Factors supporting positive partnerships • Issues compromising partnerships • In working practice • Summary
4 Responding to the affective needs of young children	84
Introduction • Definitions and terminology • Legislation and guidance • Personal, social and emotional development • Causal factors • Self-concept • Behaviour • Summary
5 Observation and assessment	114
Introduction • Children's rights, legislation and guidance •

Purposes and value of observation and assessment • Principles of observation and assessment • Methods of assessment 1 – observations • Methods of assessment 2 – checklists and questionnaires • Methods of assessment 3 – observing through play • Methods of assessment 4 – involving the children • Methods of assessment 5 – children’s behaviour • Profiling • The EYFS profile and assessment • Summary
6 Programmes of intervention	143
Introduction • Definitions • Effective interventions • ‘Differentiating’ the curriculum • Individual Education Plans • Specific intervention programmes 1 – speech and language difficulties • Specific intervention programmes 2 – autistic spectrum disorders • Summary
7 Interagency working	169
Introduction • Definitions and models • Historical developments • Progression to date • The need for interagency working • Features of effective practice • Understanding the roles of other professionals • Skills and qualities needed • The professionals involved • The role of the SENCO • Planning and coordination in early years settings • Factors affecting collaboration • Issues for the future • Summary
8 Inclusive education for young children	197
Introduction • Historical development and legislation • Definitions and models • Reasons for inclusion • Enabling inclusion in early years settings • Issues and barriers • Including disadvantaged children • Summary
9 Key issues for consideration	222
Concluding comments
Bibliography	227
Index	241