

an introduction to

early childhood

second edition

edited by Tim Waller

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
About the authors	xi
Key for icons	xiv
Introduction	xv
SECTION 1 THEORY	1
1 Modern childhood: contemporary theories and children's lives	2
Tim Waller
There are multiple and diverse childhoods	3
There are multiple perspectives on childhood	5
Children are involved in co-constructing their own childhood	7
Children's participation in family, community and culture makes a particular contribution to their own life	11
We are still learning about children and childhood	11
2 Well-being	16
Jane Waters
What is well-being?	16
Well-being and policy documents	20
Positive dispositions	22
Can well-being be measured?	24
Well-being in the UK	27
3 Children's learning	31
Tim Waller and Ros Swann
Traditional ideas about learning	32
Modern ideas about learning	33
Play and learning	40
The role of the practitioner and the emergent curriculum	42
4 Outdoor play and learning	47
Tim Waller
Context and rationale	47
Where do children play?	49
Why outdoor play is significant	50

Recent policy initiatives in the UK	55
The Outdoor Learning Project	56
5 International perspectives	63
Tim Waller
Context	64
Policy and provision	66
Curriculum	67
Quality	71
Te Whāriki	74
Reggio Emilia	75
SECTION 2 VALUES AND PRINCIPLES	81
6 Children's rights to participation	82
Gill Handley
What are children's rights?	83
Protection rights versus participation rights	84
The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) 1989	85
The Children Acts 1989 and 2004	88
The Every Child Matters agenda	90
Competence	90
7 Protecting and safeguarding children	96
Celia Doyle
Protecting and safeguarding	97
What is abuse?	97
Recognizing diversity	98
Where does abuse occur?	99
Understanding and recognizing physical abuse and neglect	100
Understanding and recognizing sexual abuse	101
Understanding and recognizing emotional abuse	102
Understanding and recognizing children's reactions to abuse	103
Recognizing abuse and the obstacles to recognition	104
Intervention	107
8 Understanding diversity	111
Prospera Tedam
Diversity language and terminology	112
Race and ethnicity	113
Inclusion	114
Gender equity	116

Socio-economic status	117
Social justice	118
A professional approach to working with diversity and difference	118
Policy frameworks	119
The national picture	119
The international picture	120
Implications for early years professionals (EYP)	121
Barriers to equal opportunities	122
9 Inclusive practice for children with Special Educational Needs (SEN)	126
Christine Hickman and Kyffin Jones
The legislative framework	127
The global and national perspective	129
Inclusion: a human right?	130
Models of disability and the role of special schools	130
Hindrances to inclusion	132
SECTION 3 PRACTICE	137
10 Studying the worlds of young children: knowing and understanding	138
Jane Murray
Children in the context of childhood: construction, destruction or co-construction?	139
Why do early years workers and others need to know and understand about the spaces and actions of young children?	140
Learning about knowing and understanding children	142
Domains in which knowledge and understanding about children are developed	147
11 Joined-up thinking in practice: an exploration of professional collaboration	152
Eunice Lumsden
The development of interagency collaboration	153
The language of collaboration	156
Collaboration in practice	159
Effective collaboration	161
The role of training in the early years	163
12 Working with families	167
Eunice Lumsden and Celia Doyle
Family life	168
Early years policy initiatives and the family	173
Home-school/setting partnerships	175

13 Child health	180
Sharon Smith and Tania Morris
The role of primary health care practitioners	182
The role of health visitors	182
The role of school nurses	183
What is a healthy school?	184
Child health promotion	185
Promoting physical activity	187
The emotional and mental well-being of children	188
Factors that put the child more at risk	188
The presentation of mental illness	189
14 Professional work in early childhood	193
Denise Hevey
Who needs qualifications?	193
The history of childcare	194
The advent of National/Scottish Vocational Qualifications	196
The role of registration and inspection	196
The advent of Foundation Degrees	197
The Children's Workforce Development Council	199
Children's Workforce Strategy	199
International comparisons	199
Early Years Professional Status	200
The relationships between EYPS and teaching	202
Glossary	207
References	214
Index	238