

Contents

Foreword	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction: The Significance of Young Children's Personal, Social and Emotional Development	I
1. The Seeds of Confidence	11
Becoming aware of oneself • Self-esteem • Self-esteem in the early years setting • Self-knowledge • Self-esteem, self-knowledge and links with learning • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
2. Living and Learning with Others	31
Why do social relationships matter? • The place of social skills in early personal development • Developing understandings and skills of friendship • The family as a social context for learning • Learning with adults in the early years setting • Learning with other children • Monitoring the development of social skills • Growing to be a good citizen • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
3. Becoming Independent	51
The drive for independence starts early in life • Social and emotional independence • Physical and functional independence • Intellectual independence • Using the environment independently • Making choices and decisions • Fostering independent thinkers • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
4. Emotional Well-Being	76
Emotional intelligence • How feelings influence early learning • The key person • Experiencing and expressing emotion • The effect of transition on children's feelings • The influence of the family • Young children's developing understanding of feelings • Seizing opportunities for emotional learning • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
5. Dispositions for Learning	100
What are dispositions? • Developing dispositions at home • Learning is not compulsory • Nurturing dispositions to learn • Dispositions are caught rather than taught • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.

6. Young Children's Behaviour 121
Past and current views about children's behaviour • Factors which affect young children's behaviour • Common types of behaviour • How children start to achieve inner and outer directed behaviour • Making it possible for children to behave well • Dealing with critical behaviour • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
7. Young Children's Spirituality 139
Awareness • Beliefs • A sense of awe, wonder and mystery • Experiencing feelings of transcendence • Searching for meaning and purpose • Creativity • The contribution of Steiner schools • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
8. Living in the Wider World 152
Learning about the world outside • Being open-minded • Early influences which affect understanding about being equal • Adult expectations • Equality between boys and girls • Equality to improve educational achievement • Promoting a global dimension • Supporting inclusion • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
9. Outdoors – a Haven for Personal Growth 171
Confidence • Independence • Social skills • Emotional development • Motivation • Getting safety in perspective • Making the most of what you have got • Helping children to look after the world outside • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
10. Working with Families to Support Young Children's Personal Growth 187
Families matter • Approaches to parenting • Pressures on young families in today's society • Offering support for families • Some major developments • Practitioners and families working together • Practical suggestions • Professional practice questions • Links to the Early Years Foundation Stage and Early Years Professional Standards • Chapter References.
11. Being Alongside the Child 208
The influence of books and stories • The context for sharing books and stories • Encouraging a personal response from children • Storytelling • Children's stories and fantasy play • Skilled practitioners are the key ingredient • Chapter References.