

Thomas A. Regelski
J. Terry Gates
Editors

LANDSCAPES > THE ARTS, AESTHETICS, AND EDUCATION

Music Education for Changing Times

Guiding Visions for Practice

 Springer

Contents

| | |
|---|-------|
| Preface | v |
| Thomas A. Regelski | |
| Contributors | xv |
| Introduction: Grounding Music Education in Changing Times | xix |
| J. Terry Gates | |
| Action for Change in Music Education | xxxii |
| | |
| Part I Musicianship | |
| 1 No One True Way: Music Education Without Redemptive Truth* | 3 |
| Wayne D. Bowman | |
| 2 Critically Reflective Musicianship | 17 |
| Roger Johnson | |
| | |
| Part II Culture and Society | |
| 3 Re-thinking “Music” in the Context of Education | 29 |
| Marie McCarthy | |
| 4 Musicianship, Musical Identity, and Meaning as Embodied Practice . | 39 |
| David G. Hebert | |
| | |
| Part III Leadership | |
| 5 Dis-Orientations of Desire: Music Education Queer | 59 |
| Elizabeth Gould | |

- 6 Pragmatism, Music's Import, and Music Teachers
as Change Agents 73
J. Scott Goble

Part IV Institutions

- 7 Listening for Whiteness: Hearing Racial Politics in Undergraduate School Music 85
Julia Eklund Koza
- 8 My Music, Their Music, and the Irrelevance of Music Education 97
Daniel Cavicchi

Part V Interdisciplinarity

- 9 Breaking Through Our Own Barriers 111
John Shepherd
- 10 Becoming Intellectually Fearless 123
Anthony J. Palmer

Part VI Research and Theory

- 11 An Expanded Research Agenda for Music Education 139
Richard Colwell
- 12 Ecological Validity and Impact: Key Challenges for Music
Education Research 149
Graham F. Welch

Part VII Curriculum

- 13 Curriculum as Professional Action 163
David J. Elliott
- 14 Placing Curriculum in Music 175
Sandra L. Stauffer
- 15 Conclusion: An End Is a Beginning 187
Thomas A. Regelski

Author Index 199

Subject Index 203