

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Acknowledgments	iii
Commissioner’s Statement	v
List of Tables	ix
List of Figures	xi
Executive Summary	xv
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
Overview of IEA and CivEd	3
How CivEd differs from NAEP Civics	4
The CivEd framework	5
The CivEd instruments	7
Description of the school and student samples.....	7
Reporting CivEd results	7
Interpreting CivEd results.....	8
Organization of the report	9
Chapter 2: The Civic Achievement of U.S. Students in International Perspective	11
The civic achievement of U.S. students relative to students in other countries	13
What students were asked to do on the CivEd assessment.....	16
Examples of content items	16
Examples of skills items.....	19
Summary.....	21
Chapter 3: The School and Classroom Context of Civic Knowledge	23
The school context of civic education	25
The relationship between school factors and civic achievement.....	28
The classroom context of civic education	30
Summary.....	35
Chapter 4: The Demographic, Socioeconomic, and Out-of-School Context of Civic Knowledge	37
Demographic characteristics	39
Family context.....	41
Student use of time outside of classes	45
Participation in organized extracurricular activities.....	45
Out-of-school activities	48
Nonschool activities related to academics.....	49
Summary.....	50

Chapter 5: Concepts of Democracy, Citizenship, and Government.....	51
Concept of democracy.....	53
Rights of citizens.....	53
Negative influence.....	55
Concept of citizenship.....	58
Importance of conventional citizenship.....	58
Importance of social movement-related citizenship.....	60
Concept of government.....	62
Economy-related government responsibilities.....	63
Society-related government responsibilities.....	65
Summary.....	67
Chapter 6: Attitudes of U.S. Students Toward National and International Civic Issues.....	69
Trust in government-related institutions.....	71
Attitudes toward the nation and international relations.....	73
National identity.....	74
International relations.....	75
Social cohesion and diversity.....	78
Support for women's political rights.....	78
Positive attitudes toward immigrants' rights.....	80
Summary.....	82
Chapter 7: Current and Expected Activities Related to Politics.....	83
Participation in discussions of national and international politics.....	85
Media exposure to current civic issues.....	88
Expected participatory political actions.....	90
Summary.....	92
List of References.....	93
Appendix A: CivEd Framing Questions.....	101
Appendix B: The CivEd Student Instrument.....	107
Appendix C: Overview of CivEd Methods and Procedures.....	111
Appendix D: Standard Errors for Tables.....	121
Appendix E: Standard Errors for Figures.....	145