

Contents

■	Preface	5
■	Nordic public libraries in the knowledge society – an introduction	7
■	The public library's core service – the loan of books – under pressure – but still in demand	13
	Recent system developments of public libraries in Iceland	15
	Development in national catalogues and loan cooperation	17
	Collaborate across borders	20
	The development of Sámi library service	23
	Ålandic network	25
	Reading is fun – at any age	26
	Words on the run: Promoting literature in Norwegian libraries	30
■	Among digital supermarkets and customised digital services	33
	Joint ventures and local endeavors	35
	SFL – Search•Find•Locate	38
	Network Nordatlanten – some cultural objects	40
	Online music loans from Danish libraries	43
	Digital films for Norwegian libraries – online	46
	BIBCAST – the libraries' broadband cinema	47
	Literaturesite.dk	48
	The Demotek	48
	Iceland Consortia for electronic subscriptions	50
■	The Physical Library Space. Old library romanticism or postmodern functionality	53
	Updated content in a relevant social context	55
	A children's library or a library for children?	59
	Library Access 2010	62
	Mobile hybrid library	65
	Cooperation crowned with a new library bus	68
	A place in the sun	68
	DDV (Deichman's Digital Lab)	68
■	Meeting places in real and virtual rooms	71
	The local global library – reflections and experience from a Swedish suburb	73
	Libraries as gateways to Danish society	76
	Idealism and the emergence of marketing strategy	78
	The library's role as learning centre for information literacy and the librarian as teacher/lifelong learning	81
	The new tasks of Library 10	84
	meetingpoint@lasipalatsi	86
	The public library as a social meeting place	87
	Nýheimar Knowledge Cluster. Centre of education, culture and development at Höfn, Iceland	90